The image features two identical wooden chairs, one on the left and one on the right, set against a dark background. The chairs are illuminated from below, creating a warm glow. The seats and the floor around the chairs are covered with numerous small, dark, angular fragments, resembling shattered glass or broken pieces of wood. The overall mood is somber and reflective.

A stolen car. An accident that takes the life of a little girl. Four years on, the parents and the joy-rider meet.

Highly accessible and utterly engrossing, this award winning drama takes you on a highly charged journey where forgiveness and redemption are set against guilt, rage and despair.

Through brilliant storytelling and recognisable characters, experience a fascinating insight into Restorative Justice; a process which tries to repair something of the harmful consequences of crime.

This riveting production will draw you in quickly - its powerful language and thought-provoking themes uncovering layer after layer with courage and compassion.

Can we ever truly forgive those who harm our loved ones? This unmissable drama lets you decide for yourself...
